Thoughts to Jump-Start
Your Day

January 1

Let us banish every fearful thought and rejoice with exceeding great joy in the prospect that this year we shall begin to be “forever with the Lord.”

The bottom of the slide features several stylized floral motifs. On the left, there is a large, light-colored flower with five petals. In the center, there is a larger, darker brown flower with five petals. On the right, there is a smaller, light-colored flower with five petals. The background is a solid light green color.

January 2

We will this year gather celestial fruits on earthly ground, where faith and hope have made the desert like the garden of the Lord. Man did eat angels' food of old, and why not now?

January 3

Prayer is the lisping of the believing infant, the shout of the fighting believer, the requiem of the dying saint falling asleep in Jesus. It is the breath, the watchword, the comfort, the strength, the honor of a Christian.

January 4

There is not a drop of love in His heart that is not yours; you may dive into the immense ocean of His love, and you may say of it all, “It is mine.”

January 5

Hath He justice? It may seem a stern attribute, but even that is yours, for He will by His justice see to it that all that is promised to you in the covenant of grace shall be most certainly secured to you.

January 6

He who grows not in the knowledge of Jesus refuses to be blessed. To know Him is “life eternal,” and to advance in the knowledge of Him is to increase in happiness.
He who does not long to know more of Christ knows nothing of Him yet.

January 7

Faith goes up the stairs that love has made and looks out the window which hope has opened.

January 8

If you know the love of Jesus, as the hart panteth for the water brooks, so will you pant after deeper draughts of His love. . .for love always cries, “Nearer, nearer.”

January 9

Take up the arms of faith against the sea of trouble, and your opposition shall yet end your distresses. There is One who careth for you.

January 10

He has so completely won our love that it beats alone for Him; to His glory we would live,
and in defense of His gospel we would die.
